6. Identity each Communication concerning the Events that You had with each member of Law Enforcement, whether before, after, or during the Events, including the name of the member of Law Enforcement, when, where, and how each Communication took place, and the nature or content of that Communication.

Answer:

I spoke to local police and the state police as I was being expelled from Emancipation Park on August 12. I asked police officers “how to leave,” and they pointed me to Market Street.

7. Identify each Communication concerning the Events You and with any Government Official, whether before, after, or during the Events, including the name of the Government Official, when, where, and how each Communication took place, and the nature or content of each Communication.

Answer: I did not have any contact with any government official during these events. On August 10, 2017, I posted a tweet directed at then-Charlottesville Mayor Mike Signer, but I did not receive any reply (<https://twitter.com/RichardBSpencer/status/895654429504008192>).

8. Identify each Communication concerning the Events You and with any School Official, whether before, after, or during the Events, including the name of the School Official, when, where, and how each Communication took place, and the nature or content of each Communication.

Answer: The only communication I had with any school official was when I received a “no trespass” notice from the University of Virginia; I learned about this order around October 26, 2017.

9. Describe any relationship You have had from January 2017 to the present with any of the Entity Defendants, including any titles, affiliations, positions, or roles You have held within any of those organizations, the responsibilities with each such title, affiliation, position, or role, and any responsibilities You had within any of those organizations that were not associated with any title, affiliation, position, or role.

Answer: I have not had any relationship with any of the Entity Defendants (such as any title, affiliation, position, or role); nor have I had any responsibility with any of the Entity Defendants. 023

10. For each Act of Violence perpetrated by or against a Defendant or a Plaintiff, identify and Describe in Detail each such Act of Violence, where and when such Act of Violence took place, who was involved in such Act of Violence, the nature of the Act of Violence, and any person known to You to have firsthand knowledge of such Act of Violence.

Answer:

I did not engage in or perpetrate any Act of Violence; nor did I aid or abet any such act; nor did I conspire to affect the commission of any act of Violence.

I also do not have any personal knowledge of any Act of Violence against any other Defendant because I did not witness any Act of Violence against any other Defendant.

I also do not have any personal knowledge of any Act of Violence against any Plaintiff; I did not know any of the plaintiffs and, so even if I saw an act of violence that some Plaintiff claims was committed against him or her, I still would not be able to answer this question.

At some point after the events of August 12, 2017, I did see Eli Mosley and I observed that he “worse for the wear”; I remember his telling me, “it was crazy out there,” from which I inferred that he might have been assaulted.

11. Identify and Describe in Detail any Weapon You possessed or carried at any point during Unite the Right, including the kind of Weapon You possessed or carried, and when, where, why, and how You acquired that Weapon; if You did not possess or carry any Weapon during Unite the Right, you should so state instead.

Answer: I had in the right-hip pocket of my pants a small folding pocket knife, which I always carried. At no time did I take the knife out of my pants pocket and at no time did it come out of my pocket by any other means. Outside of its obvious utilitarian uses, I kept this knife with me in case I were attacked and found myself unable to defend myself otherwise.

Much as some of Plaintiffs’ counsel have worn bullet-proof vests to Court in this case, I also wore a bullet proof vest at the Unite the Right Rally, because of the possibility of violence against me by counter-protesters, including the Antifa.

024

12. Identify and Describe in Detail any direction or encouragement You gave for any other person to bring a Weapon to Unite the Right, including the kind of Weapon, the time, place, and manner in which you Communicated the direction or encouragement to bring a Weapon, and the person to whom You Communicated the direction or encouragement; if You did not provide such direction or encouragement, You should so state instead.

Answer: I did not give anyone any direction or encouragement to bring a weapon to the Unite the Right rally.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing Answers are true and correct to the best to my knowledge, information and belief.

DEFENDANT FIELDS' ANSWERS TO PLAINTIFFS' THIRD SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO ALL INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

COMES NOW Defendant JAMES ALEX FIELDS, JR. ("Fields"), by counsel, and for his Answers to Plaintiffs' Third Set of Interrogatories, states as follows:

1. For each social media or email account you have used or created, identify (a) the social media or email provider (including, but not limite to, Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Discover, and Google gmail), (b) the date the account was created, (c) all usernames, handles, passwords, pseudonyms, Social Media Handles, names, phone numbers, aliases, account identifiers, and email addresses associated with the account, and (d) all persons who have had access to the account and the date(s) during which they had access..

ANSWER: (a) Fields has previously answered this interrogatory in prior discovery. Fields restates that he has not had access to his cell phone or computer since the afternoon of August 12, 2017 and has not logged on to a single social media account in over three years. Thereby, he has no means to attempt to locate additional information. As previously provided in discovery, Fields recalls @TheNewGiantDad was a Twitter account. His Facebook account had a username james.fields.9279 and a display name of "ConsciousOvisAries." Fields had a Discord account – used only for gaming – but does not recall the user or account name. Fields had a YouTube account but does not recall the username or display name.

(b) Fields does not recall the specific date any account was created and has no manner by which to attempt to obtain this information.

(c) See above. Fields does not recall any additional user or display names for any such account. Fields notes that Plaintiffs' counsel has received voluminous electronic discovery regarding the Commonwealth of Virginia and FBI investigation results of his social media accounts. While he does not recall the specific communications contained therein, Fields does not dispute the accuracy of the reports and incorporates same into his answer by reference.

(d) Fields is not aware of anyone else having access to any of his social media accounts before August 12, 2017. Upon information and belief, law enforcement had access to Fields' social media accounts after August 12, 2017.

2. Describe in detail the substance of all communications, whether oral or written, between you and any other person or entity concerning the Unite the Right rally.

ANSWER: .Other than the communications described herein and in his other answers to discovery in this case, Fields recalls receiving correspondence in jail that can predominantly be described as hate mail. Fields did receive a small percentage of supportive letters from various unknown sympathizers or members of organizations that attended or supported the Rally. Fields did not know these people prior to Unite the Right. Fields has also exchanged letters with his mother and his attorneys. Fields recalls receiving two Christmas cards from Vanguard America while incarcerated.

Fields recall discussing the events of August 12 with other Rally attendees who were incarcerated in the weeks after August 12. In regard to the specifics of those conversations while incarcerated, Fields hereby asserts and relies upon his 5th Amendment Right of the US Constitution against self-incrimination.

Fields notes that Plaintiffs' counsel has received voluminous electronic discovery regarding the Commonwealth of Virginia and FBI investigation results of his social media accounts. While he does not recall the specific communications contained therein, Fields does not dispute the accuracy of the reports and incorporates same into his answer by reference.

3. Identify ever person or entity with whom you communicated on August 12, 2017, whether orally or in writing and, for each such person or entity, describe in detail the substance of the communications.

ANSWER: Fields does not recall everyone he communicated with on August 12, 2017. Fields recalls communicating with individuals he believed to be members of Vanguard America. One individual offered him a shield, which Fields accepted. He does not know the identity of that individual or any other member of Vanguard America with whom he may have interacted on August 12, 2017, as he was never a member. Fields recalls a lot of yelling and screaming and noise but no specific conversations while in Lee Park. Fields does recall chanting along with other Rally attendees but does not recall the specific words uttered. Fields recalls various interactions with protesters involving basically yelling back and forth. He does not recall the specific statements made and does not know the identity of any counter protester with whom he interacted. Fields recalls generally discussing potentially getting something to eat with the three individuals walking back from McIntire Park. While he did not know their names at the time, Fields has learned their names are Sarah Bolstad, Hayden Lee Calhoun, and Joshua Matthews. He recalls they declined preferring to leave town and he gave them rides to their respective vehicles. Thereafter, Fields spoke only with members of law enforcement. Regarding communications with law enforcement, Fields hereby asserts and relies upon his 5th Amendment Right of the US Constitution against self-incrimination

4. Identify every person or entity with whom you communicated between January 1, 2017 and August 13, 2017, whether orally or in writing, concerning individuals or groups who are non-white, Jewish, Muslim, Hispanic, black, or politically liberal and, for each such person or entity, describe in detail the substance of the communications.

ANSWER: Fields does not recall every person or entity he communicated with over a seven and one half month time period over three years ago. As previously indicated in discovery, Fields recalls posting a direct message to David Duke and Richard Spencer, neither of which was returned. He recalls following Richard Spencer on YouTube and Twitter. Fields recalls following Augustus Sol Invictus and Michael Peinovich on Twitter. Fields also notes that Plaintiffs' counsel has received voluminous electronic discovery regarding the Commonwealth of Virginia and FBI investigation results of his social media accounts. While he does not recall the specific communications contained therein, Fields does not dispute the accuracy of the reports and incorporates same into his answer by reference. Fields generally recalls posting antagonistic and provocative material on Twitter, YouTube and possibly Facebook during this time period that often denigrated people of color and politically liberal individuals.

5. Describe in detail how you learned about the Unite the Right rally.

ANSWER: Fields does not specifically recall when he learned about the Unite the Right Rally. Upon information and belief, Fields saw social media postings about the Rally a month or so prior to the Rally. Most likely, these postings would have been on the social media – likely Twitter – accounts of one or more of the following individuals: Augustus Sol Invictus, Richard Spencer, David Duke, or Michael Peinovich.

6. Describe in detail all reasons you attended the Unite the Right rally, including but not limited to, (a) when you made the decision to attend, (b) why you chose to attend, and (c) your purposes and goals of attending.

ANSWER: (a) Fields hoped to attend the Rally when he first heard about the Rally approximately one month prior to the rally. He requested time off from work but was unsure whether the request was granted until a day or two before the Rally.

- (b) Fields attended the Rally to see the speakers.
- (c) Fields hoped to hear the speakers and perhaps have the opportunity to meet some of them.

7. Describe in detail your actions at the Unite the Right rally and during the day of August 12, 2017, including, but not limited to, (a) the approximate time and locations where you were present, (b) your actions at each location, and (c) the identity of each person and/or group you were with.

ANSWER: While this interrogatory seeks a level of detail and recall well beyond human comprehension more than three years later, the following is what Fields can currently recall.

Fields traveled from Maumee, Ohio to Charlottesville, Virginia the night of August 11 and early morning of August 12, 2017. Upon his arrival in Charlottesville in the early morning hours of August 12 – perhaps an hour or two before dawn – Fields parked in the McDonalds parking lot on 5th Street and played video games on his cellular phone. After the sun came up, Fields recalls getting something to eat. Sometime thereafter, perhaps between 8 and 9 a.m., he began walking towards Lee Park (currently Market Street Park) when he observed other individuals whom he believed to be Rally attendees arriving. Fields does not know the identity of any of these individuals. Fields approached a group of individuals dressed in similar attire. He generally recalls expressing surprise at the hostility of counter protestors. He does not recall the identity of any person in that group nor the specifics of any conversation.

An unknown member of Vanguard America offered Fields a shield. Fields took the shield and carried it on August 12, 2017, walking with members of Vanguard America to Lee Park for the Rally. Fields remained in Lee Park in the vicinity of Vanguard America members for some time. After police declared an unlawful assembly, Fields walked with a group of Rally attendees to McIntire Park. Fields does not know the name or identity of any of that group of people but believed some to be members of Vanguard America. After a short time at McIntire Park, Fields walked back to his car behind the McDonald's on 5th Street in Charlottesville with three other individuals who were present at McIntire Park and who Fields believed to be Rally attendees. While he did not know their names at the time, Fields has learned these individuals' names are Sarah Bolstad, Hayden Lee Calhoun, and Joshua Matthews. Fields gave them rides to their vehicles. After dropping off the last person, Fields recalls putting Maumee, Ohio into his GPS and beginning to attempt to proceed home.

Beyond that time, Fields hereby asserts and relies upon his 5th Amendment Right of the US Constitution against self-incrimination.

8. Describe in detail all reasons that you, on August 12, 2017, (a) wore a white polo shirt, (b) wore khaki pants, and (c) carried a Vanguard America shield.

ANSWER: Fields wore a white polo shirt and khaki pants because he thought they looked neat. Further, he read social media posts indicating that this was the sort of attire the event organizers desired rally attendees to wear to make a good impression on individuals who might observe the rally. Fields' white polo shirt did not contain the Vanguard America logo, and he has never been a member of that group. Fields carried a Vanguard America shield on August 12, 2017, because a member of Vanguard America offered him the shield. After arriving at the Rally, Fields realized his attendance at the Rally would be more dangerous than he previously anticipated. He accepted the shield to block projectiles being thrown at him and other Rally attendees.

1 A I don't remember whether he initiated it or I
2 initiated it but certainly I was interested in speaking.

3 Q And Mosley wouldn't have asked you to speak
4 unless you wanted to speak. Isn't that right?

5 A Yeah, I did want to speak.

6 Q Okay. And you told him you wanted to speak.

7 A Yeah, I did.

8 Q And you wanted to speak because you wanted to 9 be seen as a spokesman for the movement, isn't that 10 right, in Charlottesville?

11 A I just wanted to speak. That's all.

12 Q Well, it was your hometown, right?

13 A I wasn't thinking in terms of a personal
14 ambition or anything.

15 Q You weren't?

16 A No.

17 Q Didn't you get up and tell the whole group
18 under the tent that you thanked them for - that you were 19 from Charlottesville and you thanked them for being 20 there?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And you thanked them for coming to defend the 23 campaign against the statues. Isn't that right?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And none of these other people were from

Deposition of Jason Kessler

1 Charlottesville. You were. Right?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And you wanted to be seen as the spokesman from 4 Charlottesville for the movement. Isn't that right?

5 A Yeah, you could say that.

6 Q And as a result of the weekend of May 13 and
7 14, you saw that you had a role to play in the movement
8 if Charlottesville was going to be the center of activity
9 for the movement. Isn't that right?

10 A I think I already knew I had a role but, yeah -

11 Q But you wanted a leading role. Isn't that 12 right?

13 A Sure.

14 Q And you decided to use Charlottesville and the 15 statues as a focal point for the movement in the summer
16 of 2017.

17 A Well, I felt like bringing up the statue issue
18 was right on principal.

19 Q And you wanted Charlottesville in the summer of 20 2017 to become the focal point for the Alt-Right movement
21 using the statues and the removal of the statues as the 22 source of the tension.

23 A I thought the statue issue was important and if
24 the Alt-Right were the ones who were going to speak out
25 about it, then I wanted them to.

Deposition of Jason Kessler

037

1 Q And you wanted to lead the Alt-Right's movement
2 in Charlottesville. Isn't that right?

3 A Yeah, I wanted to help lead that effort.

4 Q And you wanted to use the statues as a vehicle
5 to do that.

6 A Yeah, I think that the statue issue is very 7 important.

8 Q And you decided to organize a summer rally -

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q - around the idea of saving these statues.

11 Isn't that right?

12 A Yes, correct.

13 Q And you wanted to be the leader, the organizer,
14 of that rally.

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Isn't that right?

17 A Mm-hmm.

18 Q And you filed a permit to that. Isn't that
19 right?

20 A I did.

21 Q And you talked to Mosley about doing that.

22 Isn't that right?

23 A Mm-hmm. Yes.

24 Q And Mosley was in agreement with you to use the 25 Charlottesville statues and the cause of the

1 Charlottesville statues for a rally later in the summer.

2 A Yes.

3 Q And take a look at Exhibit -

5 referred to was duly marked
6 as Exhibit No. 34 for
7 identification purposes.)

8 BY MR. LEVINE:

9 Q I'm showing you - is that the permit that you
10 filed?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And that's your signature?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you talked to Mosley about organizing the 15 rally with you, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And the two of you decided, together, to do
18 that. Isn't that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And am I right that you left it to Mosley to 21 get some of the voices in the Alt-Right to participate?

22 A I probably had his help with some of it. I did
23 a lot of that, myself, as well.

24 Q You wanted Mosley to get Spencer on board,
25 right?

3 | THE DEPONENT: Okay.

4 BY MR. LEVINE:

5 Q Do you remember assuring Mosley that you were
6 not opening it to the public?

7 A I don't remember it but that's what it says
8 here in the text messages.

9 Q What you said, correct?

10 A Yeah, it says - right here, it says, "I'm not 11 opening up to the public."

12 Q And didn't you believe that it was private?

13 A To a certain extent. I didn't know every 14 person that came into it. And some of the people who 15 were in there didn't even attend the event. But it
16 wasn't like something just anybody could come in to. So
17 it was somewhat private.

18 Q Well, it wasn't public. Isn't that right?

19 A It wasn't public.

20 Q It wasn't public in anyway. Isn't that right?
21 You had to be invited to participate.

22 A That's correct. You had to have an invitation.

23 Q So there's nothing semi public about it. Isn't 24 that right?

25 A But I didn't invite all the -

Deposition of Jason Kessler

040

1 Q Isn't that right? There's nothing semi-public
2 about that Discord chat room. Isn't that right?

3 A You had to have an invitation to go in there.

4 Q And the invitation had to be issued by the 5 people at Identity Europa. Isn't that right?

6 A Not necessarily. There were a lot of people
7 who could send out that invitation.

8 Q Could you invite people in to participate?

9 A I could.

10 Q Okay. And that chat room, if you will, the 11 channels on Discord became the meeting rooms for the 12 meetings leading to plan the rally. Isn't that right?

13 A There was some rally planning that went on in
14 there.

15 Q And there were channels that were specifically
16 identified for the leadership, correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And channels that were identified for meetings
19 to discuss the planning, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And the Discord channel essentially became the 22 vehicle for all of the organizers and participants to
23 discuss, plan for, and organize the Unite the Right
24 rally. Isn't that right?

25 A Well, there were channels where we were doing

Deposition of Jason Kessler

041

1 planning. And then there was stuff that was open to,
2 like, that was more public. And that's where people were
3 just posting crazy stuff. So the actual planning for the 4 rally was much more sedate.

5 Q Can you take a look at the amended complaint?
6 You just take a look at paragraph 72 through 78. I want
7 to know if there is anything about those allegations
8 relating to the use of Discord that are not true.

9 A Oh, there are a lot of things that aren't true
10 in this.

11 Q In paragraph 72?

12 A Oh, yes. I mean, I would say that this stuff
13 is not just untrue. It's libelous and defamatory.
14 There was no planning of unlawful acts of any kind.

15 Q But the Discord was used to plan the rally,
16 correct?

17 A Yes, to plan a free speech event.

18 Q It was used to plan the rally. Isn't that 19 right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q So, paragraph 72, the Charlottesville 2.0
22 server was used to plan the rally. Isn't that right?

23 A It was used to help plan the rally.

24 Q And the paragraph 73, you did moderate, review,
25 and direct and manage it along with Mosley. Didn't you?

Deposition of Jason Kessler

042

1 Charlottesville 2.0 server?

2 A I was one of the moderators.

3 Q And you know that Heimbach and Parrott and
4 Cantwell and Ray were participants on the Discord
5 channels. Isn't that right? Because you communicated
6 with them.

7 A I think that they had Discord accounts or were
8 in the channel but they didn't really post or communicate
9 that much.

10 Q But you knew that you did communicate at some 11 point with each of them on the Discord server, correct?

12 A May - I don't recall.

13 Q You knew that they had access to it, correct?

14 A They did have access to it.

15 Q And the channels that are listed on 76 were 16 some of the channels that were used?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And you were, in 77, you were the event
19 coordinator, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you sought participation from Vanguard
22 America, correct?

23 A Yes, I talked to people from Vanguard America.

24 Q And Identity Evropa, correct?

25 A Yes.

Deposition of Jason Kessler

043

1 Q And TWP, correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And League of the South, correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q All of those entities were invited on the 6 Discord server and participated in discussions relating
7 to the rally, correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And do you know this gentleman Tyrone as 10 identified in paragraph 78?

11 A Yeah, I remember him.

12 Q And who was he?

13 A He was a guy who was in the channel.

14 Q Did you know who he was?

15 A No.

16 Q Did you ever come to know who he was?

17 A I knew now.

18 Q And who is he?

19 A He's a military guy. He's some guy in the 20 military.

21 Q Do you know his last name or his first name?

22 A I don't recall. I mean, I saw some article
23 being written about him.

24 Q And you asked each of these entities that
25 participated in the planning to designate a

Deposition of Jason Kessler

044

1 representative for the Discord channel. Isn't that
2 right?

3 A I don't recall.

4 Q Well, didn't each of these people have somebody
5 that represented their group for these conversations?

6 A I don't recall how that worked.

7 Q So you did have - how did you - what did you
8 learn about Tyrone?

9 A When?

10 Q Well you said that you - I asked you whether 11 you came to know Tyrone and you said you did come to know
12 Tyrone. And I asked you if you knew his last name.

13 A I don't know his last name.

14 Q And you told me you didn't know his last name.

15 A No.

16 Q And I asked you if you knew who he was and you
17 said you read some articles and came to know about him.

18 A Yeah, people were offended because of some 19 jokes he made in the chat.

20 Q And when did you read the article about him?

21 A I read something maybe in the last couple of 22 weeks.

23 Q Oh, long after the event?

24 A Yeah, I mean, only recently. I have no idea
25 who the guy is. Just another random person.

Deposition of Jason Kessler

045

1 Q A random person who participated in the channel
2 planning for the event.

3 A People had talked to him about coordinating
4 bands but we didn't end up going with the suggestions
5 that he used. So, he wasn't really a very - he wasn't
6 really a planner or anything. We did talk to him about 7 bands.

8 Q And if the Discord server for August 11th and 9 12th was identified as Charlottesville 2.0, then
10 Charlottesville 1.0 was May 13 and 14, correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And what names or initials did you use for 13 yourself for the Charlottesville 2.0 or Charlottesville
14 1.0?

15 A I think my handle was always the Mad Dimension.

16 Q How did you come up with that?

17 A I don't know. Like I used to do creative
18 writing and it's a science fiction type of thing.

19 Q What is New Byzantium?

20 A That's a pro-white advocacy group I started.

21 Q And where did you start that?

22 A In Charlottesville.

23 Q When did you start it?

24 A I think towards the end of 2017 if I'm not 25 mistaken.

4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Good morning. We are
5 going on the record at 9:15 a.m. Today is May 16th,
6 2018. This is Media Unit 1, Volume 2, of the 7 continued recorded deposition of Jason Kessler,
8 taken by counsel for the plaintiff in the matter of 9 Sines, et al. versus Kessler, et al.

10 My name is Ellen Hebert from the firm of 11 Veritext, I am the videographer. The court reporter
12 is Kim Ribaric from Veritext.

13 The witness has previously been sworn in,
14 please continue.

15 MR. LEVINE: Good morning, Mr. Kessler.

16 THE WITNESS: Good morning.

17 THE REPORTER: Mr. Kessler, this is the court
18 reporter, I just want to advise you that you're 19 still under oath from yesterday.

20 THE WITNESS: Okay.

21 THE REPORTER: Thank you.

23 JASON KESSLER,
24 the Witness, recalled for examination, having been
25 previously sworn, testified as follows:

1 MS. KAPLAN: I just -- I'm just going to say
2 something at the beginning. We understand the
3 courthouse is going to be much busier today than it
4 was yesterday, and this is easy for me, because I'm 5 not saying anything, but they have requested that we
6 all try to keep the volume a little bit lower today
7 or maybe significantly lower today than yesterday
8 because of the activity in the courthouse. And I
9 said we would do that.

10 - - -

11 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. LEVINE:

13 Q. Mr. Kessler, you -- you and Eli Mosley were 14 the principal coordinators for the Unite the Right rally
15 on August 11 and 12, 2017; correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And Mr. Mosley set up the Discord channel,
18 correct?

19 A. No. A woman named Erica did.

20 Q. Working within -- from Identity Evropa?

21 A. She started it up and then later transferred 22 the -- like, the ownership of the thing to him.

23 Q. And you were designated event coordinator?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you used Discord principally to

1 coordinate with all of the representatives of the groups
2 that were invited to participate, correct?

3 A. I don't know that I'd say that. That's not
4 exactly the way I'd characterize it.

5 Q. How would you characterize it?

6 A. I would say that mostly it was just a
7 community for people to go on there and talk and make
8 jokes and stuff, although we did have some planning
9 discussions happening in there.

10 Q. Didn't you say a number of times on the 11 Discord channel that the leadership channel was for 12 planning and was not for making speeches about points of 13 view?

14 A. That's true. There were different channels
15 on the thing, and some of them were like -- you had,
16 like, My Little Pony channels, like -- and then you had
17 ones that were serious where it was a leadership
18 channel, and everything in there should be about
19 operational planning.

20 Q. And so -- and who -- who did you invite into 21 the leadership channel?

22 A. I don't even know the names of all of them,
23 but it was me, Eli Mosley, from recollection I think
24 there was a guy named Kurt in there who Eli knows, I
25 don't know him personally, I -- I've -- I've seen him,

1 but I don't know his name.

2 Q. And am I correct that --

3 A. I think Brian Brathovd was in there. And 4 those are the ones that come to my head.

5 Q. What group did Kurt represent?

6 A. I think he's an employee of Richard Spencer,
7 so MPI.

8 Q. And who was the last gentleman you just 9 named?

10 A. Brian Brathovd, he's also an employee of 11 Richard Spencer. He was present with me in some 12 meetings with police.

13 Q. And am I correct that in a -- the Discord
14 leadership channel wasn't the only means by which you
15 communicated and coordinated with the representatives of 16 the groups to plan that -- to -- to plan the events; is 17 that correct?

18 A. Yeah, I would say actually the majority of 19 the planning just happened with phone conversations, and 20 then we would post some of the stuff that we had come up
21 with onto the Discord.

22 Q. And besides -- and you talked regularly with 23 Mr. Mosley, correct? Withdrawn.

24 During the period of June, July, the 25 beginning of August 2017, you talked to Mr. Mosley

1 regularly to plan the events?

2 A. I don't know if I'd put it that way.

3 Q. You texted him and talked to him?

4 A. I did -- I did have communication with him,
5 but it wasn't as much as I would have liked.

6 Q. So you ended up coordinating more of the 7 events than -- than you thought you would in the 8 beginning, is that your testimony?

9 A. That -- that's a fair way to put it. I had
10 certain things that I was handling, like the court
11 cases, and he had certain things that he was handling as
12 far as with the after-party and doing the on-the-ground
13 stuff, like how you get point -- people from point A to 14 point B, that was all his thing.

15 Q. And what actually was the leadership channel
16 used for?

17 A. The serious discussions.

18 Q. And what kinds of -- what were the subjects
19 of the serious discussions?

20 A. Just like what the -- who the speakers were 21 going to be, how were -- how we were going to protect 22 the speakers, whether we felt the police were being 23 cooperative in creating a safety plan, stuff like that.

24 Q. Did who the speakers were going to be include
25 issues of what groups would be represented to speak?

1 A. I think that came up, yeah. I remember that
2 coming up at least once.

3 Q. And did that include whether the alt-right
4 would be included or not?

5 A. Probably, yeah. That seems reasonable.

6 Q. So the leadership channel was used to -- to 7 discuss what the -- what the objectives, if you will, of 8 the rally would be, and how to achieve those objectives
9 through the speakers that you would invite --

10 A. Probably so, yeah. I -- I don't recall what 11 was in there, but it -- it's pretty much what you're 12 describing.

13 Q. But when you -- when you were talking to --
14 to Mosley and to the representatives of these other 15 groups, the discussion was who would be invited to 16 speak, correct?

17 A. We did talk about that.

18 Q. And the -- in discussing who would be invited
19 to speak, you would be -- you would be considering what 20 points of view those people represented to be invited to 21 speak, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Because you wanted the rally to have a
24 certain focus and purpose, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And starting in June of 2017, it
2 pretty much became your full-time job until August 11th
3 and 12th; is that right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Night and day?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. I mean, these Discord channel -- the -- the 8 times of these Discord channels kind of defy the normal
9 working day, would you say?

10 A. I was working on it a lot.

11 Q. At night, middle -- early in the mornings --
12 early --

13 A. Day and night. I worked as much as I
14 possibly could.

15 Q. I mean, some of these are like after 16 midnight, some of these communications?

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. Some of the people that were participating 19 had full-time jobs and didn't get on the site until 20 after work, correct?

21 A. That's probably reasonable, but I don't 22 really have any knowledge, but probably.

23 Q. And for you, though, this was 24/7?

24 A. Well, I slept and I ate and --

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. -- did normal life things, but I did -- I
2 worked on it as much as I could.

3 Q. So Mr. Spencer, Richard Spencer, did he
4 participate on the leadership channel or did he
5 participate by his designees?

6 A. Designees.

7 Q. And his designees were -- were Brian
8 Brathovd --

9 A. I believe Brian -- yeah, Brian and --

10 Q. And Kurt?

11 A. -- Eli and Kurt, those were the ones that I'm 12 aware of.

13 Q. And Chris Cantwell. Did Cantwell participate
14 on the channel?

15 A. No. I mean, he was in the Discord, but he --
16 he almost never used it.

17 Q. You met with Cantwell before the rally to 18 discuss the rally; is that right?

19 A. I met with him the -- like a day or two 20 before the rally when he got into town.

21 Q. And the purpose of that meeting was to 22 discuss the rally, correct?

23 A. Yeah. I mean, it was stuff related to the 24 rally.

25 Q. Did -- had you met Cantwell before?

1 A. Yeah, I met him one time in Alexandria. Oh,
2 yeah, yeah, the -- we did a free speech rally together.

3 Q. Where was that?

4 A. That was in front of the Lincoln Memorial.

5 Q. When was that?

6 A. I don't recall exactly. It was before the 7 Unite the Right rally, maybe in June or July.

8 Q. So it was after a point in time when the 9 decision -- when the permit had been filed to do the 10 rally, the --

11 A. I think so.

12 Q. -- Unite the Right rally?

13 A. I think so.

14 Q. And did you discuss with him his 15 participation, upcoming participation in the Unite the 16 Right rally?

17 A. I don't recall there being much conversation
18 other than me just asking him, hey, you should come and 19 do this thing, and he seemed really busy and was like,
20 yeah, yeah, yeah, call me later.

21 Q. And did you end up calling him later?

22 A. I don't know whether I contacted him by phone
23 or some other means, but I did contact him.

24 Q. And he agreed to come and participate?

25 A. Yes.

Charlottesville. DC-area SURJ chapters plan to mobilize folks and build support for the local counter-demonstrators.

To support the action in Charlottesville, we'll need to train caregivers (emotional support, food/water), de-escalators, legal observers, remote support (social media, supply gatherers, etc.) and get clear about what's involved in direct action. At this meeting, we will have breakouts to build our skills and define our roles within "affinity groups." Participants will make commitments to their affinity groups and plan to continue building strength for the action in August. We want as many people as possible to commit to being in Charlottesville on the 12th, but there are ways to support if you cannot attend in person. Whatever your skills or in/experience with this kind of action, there is a place for you!

Help with set up and clean up of the event is needed, if you can volunteer, please contact surjdc.action@mail.com.

SURJ NoVa is offering a carpool from the Virginia 'burbs to make sure everyone who wants to attend this meeting can. Sign up to drive or to ride: <https://>

These people are insane. This is a Facebook post about them doing a pre-event to prepare for cville. Look at this corporate language compared to our literal military operation document. They are little corporate tools and we're and resistance fighting force. I hate this morons.

Speaking at UVA

by Jason Kessler | jason@unityandsecurity.org

Hi Richard,

While you're in Charlottesville we should talk about getting you in to speak at UVA (if you don't already have arrangements).

I'm bringing in Jared Taylor first as part of a court ordered community service program I've decided to do for New Century Foundation.

I think it would be a pretty hilarious situation after the stir the upcoming Lee rally will cause and the liberals finding out I am using my community service hours to bring right-wing speakers to UVA.

If you would be interested we can pick a date beginning in the Fall semester and running from August 28, 2017 through May 18th 2018.

By Electronic and U.S. Mail

Dear Mr. Kessler:

I write on behalf of the City's Department of Parks and Recreation in reference to your May 30, 2017 application for a permit to conduct a demonstration in Emancipation Park on August 12, 2017. While demonstrations are typically handled through that Department, the unprecedented size and scope of your rally at its proposed Downtown location requires me, as the City official charged with the general supervision and control of City property, to review your request in light of its significant impact on the community.

Based on information provided to me by law enforcement officials, the City has decided to approve your application for a permit to hold a demonstration on the day and at the times requested, provided that you use McIntire Park, rather than Emancipation Park, for your demonstration. To the extent that the permit is deemed granted due to inaction within ten days of receipt of the application, the City hereby modifies the permit, based on the above-referenced information, to specify that the demonstration take place at McIntire Park. If you are unwilling to use the McIntire Park location, the permit for Emancipation Park is hereby denied pursuant to section 3.4.5 of the City's Standard Operating Procedure ("SOP") for Special Events and Demonstrations or, if the Permit is deemed granted due to inaction within ten days of receipt of the application, the City hereby revokes the permit pursuant to section 3.4.7 of the City SOP.

Your permit application states that the demonstration will consist of approximately 400 people. However, in recent days it has come to the City's attention that many thousands of individuals are likely to attend the demonstration. Because Emancipation Park is a relatively confined space of just over one acre in a densely populated urban area with limited parking space, it is unable to accommodate safely even a peaceful crowd of this size. The City's law enforcement, fire and emergency medical services personnel cannot adequately protect people and property in and around Emancipation Park due to the number of anticipated attendees trying to occupy such a small and confined space. The Police Department also anticipates that the presence of such a large demonstration in Emancipation Park would require the closing of a section of East Market Street, leading to massive traffic congestion and shutting down a principal means of ingress and egress, for the duration of the 5 hour rally.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
AUGUST 13, 2017

JASON KESSLER
jason@unityandsecurity.org

STATEMENT OF “UNITE THE RIGHT” RALLY
ORGANIZER

Charlottesville, Virginia – Jason Kessler, the organizer of the “Unite the Right” rally, has disavowed the political violence that resulted in the death of at least one person and the injuries of many others.

“The blame for today’s violence lies primarily with Charlottesville government officials and the police officers who failed to maintain law and order, protect the First Amendment rights of rally participants, and provide for their safety,” Kessler said. “We coordinated with law enforcement officials with whom we put in place carefully-planned safety arrangements months prior to the event. Despite this, the Charlottesville Police Department and Virginia State Police intentionally departed from the plan. Instead of separating demonstrators and counter-demonstrators, and intervening when violent counter-protesters attacked the participants of the rally, they executed a deliberate plan to wait until we were gathered in a small, barricaded area of the park, at which point they deployed riot police to drive us into the crowd of counter-protesters. Instead of maintaining law and order, the police purposefully created the catastrophe that led to a melee in the streets of Charlottesville and the death of a counter-protester.”

After the Charlottesville government backed out of the safety plan shortly prior to the event, Kessler and interested groups filed suit in federal court and obtained an emergency temporary restraining order requiring the Charlottesville government to permit the rally at Emancipation Park (formerly known as Lee Park). In spite of our possession of a lawful permit and our vindication in federal court, officials declared our assembly unlawful, arrested several of our peaceful demonstrators, and physically drove the rest from the Park.

Photographs have circulated via the Internet of counter-protesters carrying bows and arrows, knives, hammers, baseball bats, and even an improvised flamethrower made with an aerosol can. Participants of the “Unite the Right” rally were victimized by pepper spray used by counter-protesters.

“Charlottesville violated the federal court’s order by shutting down the rally at Lee Park after left-wing agitators began throwing bricks at us,” Kessler said. “Our right to free speech was violated when the police officers acquiesced to the unconstitutional ‘heckler’s veto’ raised by our detractors.”

“Due to the police not maintaining order, many people were hurt,” Kessler added. “The media is not showing who instigated the violence.”

I can draft the complaint and motion for an emergency temporary restraining order this evening after I leave my office, they can proofread and/or file it tomorrow, and the emergency hearing can occur on Thursday or Friday--before the rally.

Also, send me a succinct typed-up statement about the situation (i.e., who, what, where, when, how, why, etc). Email to me all online articles in which Charlottesville government officials said bad things about your political views. I will need this by tonight so I can use the info when I type up the complaint. Also, please email to me as PDFs documents which concern the situation (i.e., the letter relocating the event, your permit for the event, etc).

Keep in mind that this event won't just be Alt-Right and Alt-Light. The Left is so intolerable in Charlottesville that they will be driving out normie Republicans and Confederate supporters who will be hearing Richard Spencer and the others speak for the first time.

Every time I hear WN 1.0 figures who are still on the 1.0 side talking about the alt-right, it's always butthurt. They spent decades getting nowhere and now all the spotlight is going to people like Spencer and Mike Enoch.

What Wintrich and Cernovich and the others accused Spencer of is good enough reason to behead them. It shows they are out of ammo and this was their last attempt to dethrone us. They must be dragged to the death while they are faltering.

If an anonymous profile starts messaging you about tactics, especially at a time where we have to be 110% cautious about security, what is your natural response? To tell them everything? “One of the keynote speakers at the rally will be Richard Spencer, a white nationalist who has previously called for “peaceful ethnic cleansing” in America. Despite a number of overlapping objectives, he has made on-record attempts to dissociate with the Klan. He and others affiliated with his movement also seek to distance themselves from the Confederate Flag, not because they disavow it as a symbol of white supremacy, but because its associations with poverty and “ignorance” negatively reflect on their brand. Spencer and his cohort want to update bigotry for the 21st Century. Their success relies upon delivering many of the same messages of intolerance in a more fashionable package. To put it another way, the online memes mocking a Klansmen’s misspelling of the word bible would damage their recruiting efforts.”

Actually, I can just put it here, @MadDimension (/discord/user/1647) – Greg never fails to say that whatever Richard Spencer is involved in is leading our movement to disaster. Spencer puts his face out there and leads, and Greg alternatively shits on what he does in public, or works behind the scenes to undermine it. I would be very careful.

Can't you see their numbers teeming
See their red and black flags streaming
To this battle field

Men of Europe stand ye steady
It cannot be ever said ye
For the battle were not ready
Stand and never yield

Through the streets rebounding
Let this war cry sounding
Summon all at Spencer's call
The mighty force surrounding

Men of Europe onto glory
This shall ever be your story
Keep these fighting words before ye
White men will not yield

On the next day the actual rally began. Immediately the police surrounded them to protect them and the Alt Right wanted to look like cool guys so they started rushing the police barricade that was protecting them. It was pretty pathetic and they didn't even cause the pigs to flinch. Richard Spencer tried to punch a cop and ended up fucking up his fingers on a riot shield instead. Spencer said yesterday that we'd be back in Cville, but this would apply anywhere in VA and similar jurisdictions with prohibitions on masks. If the police again refuse to do anything about those wearing masks (a crime in progress) what are everyone's thoughts on subduing them and placing them in zip-ties as part of a declared citizen's arrest?

Facing the Future As a Minority

Post Views: 899 September 28, 2016 8:05 pm

This speech was delivered at the 2013 American Renaissance conference, which took place on April 5-7 near Nashville, Tennessee.

For as long as anyone can remember, immigration has been the chief political concern at gatherings such as this. At last night's cocktail party, "amnesty," "illegals," and various heroes and villains in Washington were discussed with great interest.

For people like us—who are asylumed away to the margins—one could say that immigration is our connection to the outside world. It makes us feel like we have a horse in the race—maybe even that, through our silent partners in the Beltway, we can affect national policy. We even get captivated, we must admit, by the political theater of "immigration reform." Ann Coulter's speech at the last Conservative Political Action Conference, for example, was catnip for racialists. Ann staked out the far rightward territory of respectability; and though she used the language of Republican electioneering, she seemed to be winking and nodding at us the entire time.

Whenever any issue or idea receives universal accord—when it becomes an assumption, when it's taken for granted—it's time to put it under serious scrutiny. We should ask what an issue like immigration can tell us about ourselves—about what our goals are, and should be, and how we could best engage in political action. I hope we can do that today.

That we have failed to stem immigration in our 45-year struggle is obvious enough. Some major amnesties have been halted due to energetic, grassroots activists, but mass-immigration proponents have walked away from these battles with confidence that they'll get it done next year.

That we have continuously failed is not, in itself, an argument against continuing along this course. Still, sometimes when we focus on various political skirmishes (like the current one over "amnesty"), we lose sight of the big picture—we lose sight of the fact that we have failed on a much deeper level than mere policy.

In the summer 2011, the Census Bureau reported that the majority of children born in the United States are non-White. Thus, from our perspective, any future immigration-restriction efforts are meaningless. Even if all immigration, legal and illegal, were miraculously halted tomorrow morning, our country's demographic destiny would merely be delayed by a decade or two. Put another way, we could win the immigration battle and nevertheless lose the country, and lose it completely.

And we shouldn't focus too much on the "2050" date, when Whites will become a minority, as if once Whites drop to 49 percent, a bell will go after announcing the end of the American Dream. We are at a major crisis point now. And we are well past the point of no return with regards to "patriotic immigration reform."

Furthermore, this insight into the irrelevance of immigration reform holds for the whole kit-and-caboodle of "conservative" causes. Should we, for instance, really be fighting for "limited government" or the Constitution, so that the Afro-Mestizo-Caribbean Melting Pot can enjoy the blessing of liberty and a sound currency? (To ask the question is to answer it.)

SYMBOLIC POLITICS

Beyond failure, there's always been something . . . mendacious about immigration reform. Leftists (who sometimes understand us better than we understand ourselves) have always sensed this; they know that when we talk about immigration, we're not really talking about immigration. 109

There are very good reasons, of course, for any nation to oppose lawless entry. And there are unalterable mathematical factors at play: all things being equal, more workers equals lowers wages. These are (and should) be the concerns of the "respectable" immigration-reform movement.

But these are not our concerns.

The issues the Beltway immigration reformers focus on are essentially quantitative in nature, as you can see by the names of their organizations: "numbers," "carrying capacity," etc.

Our concerns are qualitative. As they should be. For in war, art, and enterprise, great quality can predominate over mere "numbers." Our race's history is replete with examples of this: of continental or overseas empires—the globe itself—being administered by a central elite. More impressive still are the examples of one man with little money or support—whether it be Copernicus, Martin Luther, or Nietzsche—overturning whole schools of thought and institutions and society's most basic assumptions.

Quality should have a practical effect on how we think about the immigration issue. What would we say and do, to take a hypothetical example, if a million Swiss or Russian "boat people" washed up on a seashore, due to some international catastrophe? Would we oppose granting them citizenship, out of some devotion to legality and fairness? I wouldn't. I would become a bleeding-heart liberal and argue that these refugees would improve our economy and enrich our culture (as they likely would). And such an example might not remain hypothetical. In the foreseeable future, we may very well face this exact situation with the Boer people of South Africa. We need to think now about how we will react and articulate our position. 110

For us “immigration” is a proxy for race. In that way, immigration can be good or bad: it can be a conquest (as it seems now) . . . or a European in-gathering, something like White Zionism. It all depends on the immigrants. And we should open our minds to the positive possibilities of mass immigration from the White world.

Taking a step back, it seems that for everyone “immigration” is a proxy, a mask, a lie. Perhaps all of political activism and wonkery are manifestation of deeper, largely unconscious desires for power. When we hear any professional “Latino” support this or that social program, we sense in our guts that her policy proscriptions are rationalizations for nationalism. She might say “more immigration is good”; she means “The Anglos are finished!”

In turn, we are right to view “conservative” activism—especially those hokey and embarrassing events like Glenn Beck rallies—as symbolic in-gatherings of America’s historic majority, as ways for Whites to feel a sense of belonging and identity in a world that is increasingly cold and hostile. Generic “conservatism”—despite itself—has become a kind of White identity politics. And however flawed, all of its prominent ideological features resonate in the hearts of decent White people: self-reliance, freedom, uprightness etc. And when White men talks about “restoring the Constitution”—or, more so, “Taking Our Country Back”—leftists and non-Whites are right to view this as threatening and racialist: it implies a return to origins and that the White man once owned America. However much we might critique these conservative ideas, we cannot deny this basic symbolism. Indeed, it is due to this symbolism—and not policy—that conservative leaders like Glenn Beck have to envelope all-White events in “Martin Luther King” and the most useless political issues possible. They can’t let the natives get out of hand... 111

Now, if we accept that generic conservatism is symbolic, we should ask a higher-level question—Is this proxy actually good for our movement and, more important, for our race and civilization?

We were able to understand the futility of the immigration issue by asking not what would happen if the movement lost, but what would happen if it actually won. In turn, we should ask an analogous question: what exactly would conservatism “restore” or “take back”?

We can look to history for answers.

In 1789, we had the Constitution. We had a government that was a mere flea in comparison to the elephant that rules us today. Confiscatory taxation was unheard of; the invasions of personal privacy we experience today wasn’t only rare but was, for the most part, infeasible. We had a more republican, indeed, aristocratic, political system. We had bounteous natural resources and no threatening world power bordering our country.

Yet, within 75 years, we had inflicted upon ourselves a devastating Civil War—one that decimated the Founding stock of the country. Within 125 to 150 years, our political system had become dominated by same kind of liberal egalitarianism it is today.

Why should we believe that, if we could “restore the Constitution,” the outcome would be any different? One should not rewind a movie, play it again, and then be surprised when it reaches the same unhappy ending.

Of course, history is not determined; it is not a film reel or script. But looking dispassionately at our current situation, we can only conclude that if we could hit a political “reset button,” this time around, the outcome would be far worse.

We are entering a world of resource scarcity (not abundance), and we are not dealing with Blacks that are socially and politically inferior, but some hundred million non-Whites who are empowered by our political system.

Thus, we don’t have to speculate about whether Rand Paul (and any other “right-wing” Republican) really wants to restore constitutional government or would actually be able to do so. This is all irrelevant. The goals themselves are wrong and must be abandoned.

Supporting Paul, or whatever version of the Tea Party or Republican “immigration hawk” comes up next, is not “pragmatic”; it is, to the contrary, entirely impractical. And it would be devastating for our movement politically: we would be spending our limited resources of time, energy, and money on politicians whose rosiest conceivable outcome would not change anything. “Restoring the Constitution” and “patriotic immigration reform” are just more in a series of safety valves and escape hatches preventing us from confronting the real issues facing our race.

Before we can move forward, we must come to terms with some rather dismal truths. There are no policy proscriptions or politicians currently open to us that will fundamentally alter our destiny. And, most likely, within our lifetimes, we will not see the kind rebirth of Occidental civilization that we in this room know is necessary.

What we can do now is begin to set a new and different course. Our challenge is to reorient our people, spiritually as much as intellectually and politically, to a world that will be hostile towards them and towards a future beyond the United State of America. 113

MINORITY REPORT

I'm sure that when many heard the title of my talk, "Facing the Future as a Minority," they cringed at the very notion. It insults our pride and dignity to think that I might be suggesting we go out and find ourselves a White Al Sharpton, who could speak at demonstrations after various hate-crime hoaxes and badger politicians until Whites got a seat at the trough. Perhaps I might start calling my "The Reverend" Richard Spencer and hold prayer vigils after some celebrity misused the word "cracker."

Believe me, I find this just as offensive as you do.

The good news is that the "Al Sharpton" option will never be open to us. Whites are and will always be the exception to multiculturalism; we will never be allowed to play the game.

We must also recognize that not only will we always be at odds with the multi-cult, but, at least at the beginning, we will be at odds with the people we seek to defend. In White America's unconscious, they are America. And the process of letting that dream go will be painful.

Moreover, the era of mass immigration into Western countries coincided with stunning advances in consumer capitalism, technology, and access to higher education. In the public's imagination, multiculturalism was linked (however irrationally) with increased living standards and general "progress." For some, a White society might seem to be a retreat, towards less prosperity and dynamism.

Suffice it to say, this will be a hard path.

One characteristic that we must adopt as White minority advocates is a new openness to alternative political forms, even things that have previously made us cringe. One of those was suggested by our friends outside protesting our gathering. No, not "Bomb Dresden Again!" but "Go Back to Europe!" Emigration with an E is, of course, not practical for all Whites in North America; and at the moment at least, it seems that Western Europe is dedicated to its destruction almost as much as America. But we should be open to this option.

Back to Europe? Not a bad idea...

I would also direct you to the work on racial separatism of two men: Michael Hart and Rabbi Mayer Schiller, both of whom have presented real plans for dividing up the existing United States, mostly on the basis of race and partly on ideology. (Michael generously offers Liberals the chance to live in "Diversity" canton if they so desire. . .)

There is, I admit, a certain pie-in-the-sky quality to these proposals, as if a map-maker in his study could create new countries. But we should remember that in the last century, racially defined nation-building was a major "progressive" cause. We now think that the so-called "liberal elites" have always been dedicated to multiculturalism and race-mixing. This is not quite the case, as liberals have a history of adopting "national determination" and even "ethno-nationalism" as their causes. In 1919, following the Great War, the world's statesmen met in Paris to (for lack of a better term) re-map the world after the dissolution of the defeated empires. New countries were invented (the Kingdom of Croats, Serbs, Slovenes), old ones were reborn (Poland), and ethnicities got their day in the Sun

(Czechoslovakia). Related to this process was the Balfour Declaration and British mandate for a homeland for the Jews in Palestine. Nationalists of many stripes captured the hearts and minds of political actors. 115

Today, in the public imagination, “ethnic-cleansing” has been associated with civil war and mass murder (understandably so). But this need not be the case. 1919 is a real example of successful ethnic redistribution—done by fiat, we should remember, but done peacefully.

OUR CAUSE

Like the nationalists of a century ago, we need a cause—and one that’s different, greater, and more advanced than the conservative “hot button” issues that are fading into irrelevance. We need to be more than mere “reactionaries,” who spasmodically ignite in the face of some new liberal innovation—all the while being gradually pushed in their enemies’ direction, towards accepting their enemies’ assumptions, towards defeat. We need a telos, an outcome or end goal—something that we are working towards, that channels our energies. We need an ideal. And ideals are greatest when they at first seem “impossible.”

The ideal I advocate is the creation of a White Ethno-State on the North American continent.

Vis-a-vis most contemporary states that are putatively based on the Rights of Man and “democracy,” our project would be a new kind of political and social order. It would be a state for the 21 century—or 22nd: reflecting advances in communication and transportation, it would be a home for Germans, Latins, and Slavs from around the world. On one level, it would be a reconstitution of the Roman Empire. The Ethno-State would be, to borrow the title of a novel by Theodor Herzl (one of the founding fathers of Zionism), an Altneuland—an old, new country.

I'm sure there's no shortage of people, most likely even people in this room, who'd inform me that an Ethno-State would be beautiful but, alas, "infeasible." In the face of this, we need to remember something very important: the creation of a White Ethno-State on the American continent is perfectly feasible. Indeed, it is a modest project in comparison to bringing democracy to the Middle East, narrowing the SAT score gap, or inspiring young women to become mathematicians, or countless other looney and infantile trillion-dollar initiative with which the American government is currently engaged.

We shouldn't forget that before the current government dedicated its resources to equalizing mankind, it channelled billions—created industries, created whole cities—for the goal of space exploration. (It has since given up this project in favor of boosting the Muslim world's self-esteem.)

When I travelled to my hometown recently, I noted that the wealthy Whites of Dallas, Texas, have dedicated their disposable income to a charity hospital skyscraper, built in the hopes of taking care of other peoples' children and other peoples' problems. (It's hard to get them to give 100 bucks to AmRen or NPI.)

Action is, in a way, the easy part.

Channelling action, setting a goal, identifying a telos—saying yes and saying no—that is what is difficult.

In this way, our challenge is one of the spirit.

Our task is to capture the imaginations of our people (or the best of our people) and shock them out of their current assumption of what they think is possible. The means of doing this is not to promise a 20-percent reductions in immigration or sales taxes—or the narrowing of the scope of government. To the contrary, we need to offer our people what Herzl called “the voluptuous idea.”¹¹⁷

We need an ethno-state so that our people can “come home again,” can live amongst family, and feel safe and secure. But we also need an Ethno-state so that Whites can again reach the stars. Before the onset of the “equality” sclerosis, Europeans had a unique ability to risk everything for ends that are super-human. We must give up the false dreams of equality and democracy —not so that we could “wake up” to reality; reality is boring—but so that we can take up the new dreams of channelling our energies and labor towards the exploration of our universe, towards the fostering of a new people, who are healthier, stronger, more intelligent, more beautiful, more athletic. We need an ethno-state so that we could rival the ancients.

In Altneuland, Herzl wrote, referring to his “utopian” plan for a Jewish state in Palestine: “If you wish it, it is no fairy tale. . . . If you don’t wish it, it is a fairly tale and will remain one.”

Or, to quote another historical figure: “I have a dream.”

The 'Unite The Right' Rally Is Going To Be A Turning Point For White Identity In America

3 years ago

If you read AltRight.com, you must come to Charlottesville.

If you haven't heard yet, let me inform you that the largest ethno-nationalist rally of the 21st century is being planned for August 12th in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Everyone who isn't hiding out in Nigeria or Eastern Europe is going to be there.

Despite all the internal bickering and squabbling that has characterized the pro-White movement the last couple of decades, everyone has managed to put aside their differences to focus on this rally.

All of you who have asked if the Alt-Right will ever get serious and do something IRL now have an answer.

We are going to rally to defend White heritage in Charlottesville, Virginia.

The last time we were there we kept it on a need to know basis and planned internally. We mustered about 250 pre-vetted people.

This time, we are putting out the call for all White advocates to come out.

The Daily Stormer has been promoting the event heavily and it looks like they are going to bring a lot of young new cadres to the rally. Identity Europa will be there as well as several Southern Nationalist groups. There will be no Alt-Lite co-rally, it will be just us, the proverbial and literal White Guard out there defending the statue of General Lee. This is a good development. They are quickly becoming irrelevant and losing their street presence as we continue to grow and take up space.

No one knows how many of us will show up there just yet. A conservative estimate would put us at about 500, although if the Daily Stormer book clubs, frog twitter, and affiliated groups come through, we can top 1000.

What we do know is that there will be hundreds of Antifa there and they will be looking to start a fight. The city government is hostile to us, and they may order the police to stand down so that Antifa can move in to disrupt our rally. This is what happened at Berkeley, but it didn't end well for Antifa: 120

AntiFa Physically Removed

We have taken precautions. There are several self-defense units already organized, and it looks like Azzmador's people from the Daily Stormer will have shields on them, just like the Traditional Worker's Party will as well.

The Eagle Movie Clip - Open The Gates

121

We're ready for a fight if it comes to it. In fact, we welcome Antifa to start it. We will defend ourselves and break that pathetic little trust-fund anti-White faggot organization once and for all.

Imagine a world without Antifa — no more shutting down patriots, no more shutting down free speech, no more shutting down White people.

We need you there. The Alt-Right is growing stronger and stronger. Our ideas dominate the internet, despite all the censorship that we have faced. Now it's time to dominate the streets. From there, we will begin to dominate politics as well because all political power ultimately flows from the streets.

A fight lies before us...a fight for action...for vigor...for vitality...for manhood.

You might think it's just a rally, but really, it's so much more.

122

We're making a stand when no one else will. We are telling the anti-White establishment and its attack dogs that we are not going to give another inch. And that's what politics is really, a game of inches. You can't change everything overnight, but you can start advancing the line, inch by inch.

We are where we are because previous generations forgot how to hold the line. They caved and the enemy advanced inch by inch, yard by yard. And now we have come to the tipping point. Our countries are ruined. Ruined to the point where we can't even talk about it. You may have asked yourself:

"Where is the resistance? Why isn't anyone trying to stop it?"

Well, now you have your answer.

At long last, the Lunatic Left has met disciplined and motivated opposition from the Alt-Right. And they don't like that one bit. They are so scared that they can't even think straight and can only hit the 'Panic' button to try to shut us down. They are afraid because our message is starting to resonate with thousands of young white men and women.

They should be. And after Charlottesville, they will finally understand the depths of their failure. They will know that they have failed to stamp out the White Identity movement in America.

They will try to break us at Charlottesville, and they will fail.

People will talk about Charlottesville as a turning point. There will be a before Charlottesville and an after Charlottesville. Will you stand up for your history, your race and your way of life?

Will you be there?

What It Means To Be Alt-Right

123

3 years ago

A meta-political manifesto for the Alt-Right movement.

The Charlottesville Statement

August 11, 2017

1. Race

Race is real. Race matters. Race is the foundation of identity.

“White” is shorthand for a worldwide constellation of peoples, each of which is derived from the Indo-European race, often called Aryan.

“European” refers to a core stock—Celtic, Germanic, Hellenic, Latin, Nordic, and Slavic—from which related cultures and a shared civilization sprang.

2. Jews

Jews are an ethno-religious people distinct from Europeans. At various times, they have existed within European societies, without being of them. The preservation of their identity as Jews was and is contingent on resistance to assimilation, sometimes expressed as hostility towards their hosts. “Judeo-Christian values” might be a quaint political slogan, but it is a distortion of the historical and metaphysical reality of both Jews and Europeans.

3. The Ethno-State

Nations must secure their existence and uniqueness and promote their own ¹²⁴ development and flourishing. The state is an existential entity, and, at its best, a physical manifestation of a people's being, order, and will to survive. Racially or ethnically defined states are legitimate and necessary.

4. Metapolitics

Spirit is the wellspring of culture, and politics is downstream of that. The Alt-Right wages a situational and ideological war on those deconstructing European history and identity. The decrepit values of Woodstock and Wall Street mean nothing to us.

5. White America

The founding population of the United States was primarily Anglo-Saxon and Protestant. By the Great War, a coherent American nation emerged that was European and Christian. Other races inhabited the continent and were often set in conflict or subservience to Whites. Whites alone defined America as a European society and political order.

6. Europe

Europe is our common home, and our ancestors' bone and blood lie in its soil.

European unity emerged at critical points in history, but so did fragmentation, rivalry, and betrayal. As brother nations, Europeans have competed with one another, and even hated and killed one another. We can no longer afford the luxury of intra-racial squabbling. "Brothers wars" gain us nothing, and directly lead to our collective downfall. Europeans must come together as a family.

The so-called “refugee crisis” is an invasion, a war without bullets, taking place on the fields of race, religion, sex, and morality. At stake is Europe’s very identity—whether the continent will be the locus of our people’s shared story, or become just another Islamic outpost.

7. Family

The family—a man and woman in a loving relationship that produces offspring—is an essential, indispensable foundation for a healthy and functioning society.

8. Human Nature

Man is not a blank slate on which to be written, nor was he born a guileless, noble savage. Human nature—the reality of race, sex, heritability, and innate endowments—is the most powerful force shaping individuals, families, societies, and nations.

9. Women and Sex

Women, as mothers and caregivers, are key to the future of our race and civilization. We oppose feminism, deviancy, the futile denial of biological reality, and everything destructive to healthy relations between men and women. We must overcome today’s debased and lonely “porn culture” and return to a sexuality that is fruitful and erotic in the truest sense of the word.

10. Foreign Affairs

The foreign policies of European states (including immigration, diplomacy, and war) should be based on the safeguarding of its peoples—and not be beholden to special or foreign interests, nor to corporate profit motives, nor to the chimeras of globalism, humanitarianism, or the End of History. Insofar as “chauvinism” means attempting to transform non-Europeans into Europeans, we are not “Western chauvinists.”

11. Speech

American citizens should enjoy freedom of speech as guaranteed by the Constitution; we endorse this value for all European peoples. We oppose those who seek to suppress the speech of people with whom they disagree, whether through government censorship, corporate policy, digital platform denial, or intimidation.

12. Firearms

All U.S. citizens, and all Europeans, should have the right to bear arms, as a means of protecting themselves and their families and enjoying the manly sport of hunting.

13. Globalization

International trade and the good-faith exchange of ideas can be beneficial to all. Economic and political globalization, however, has been destructive to authentic cultures. Industrialized countries are being transformed into great “nothings” and “nowheres”: indistinguishable, concrete dumping grounds and shopping centers, divorced from culture, people, and history. Globalization threatens not just Europeans but every unique identity on Earth.

14. The Left

Leftism is an ideology of death and must be confronted and defeated. “Losing gracefully” will eventuate in the destruction of our people and civilization.

15. Economics

127

Economic freedom is not an end in itself. All economic policies should serve the people of the nation; the interests of businessmen and global merchants should never take precedence over the well-being of workers, families, and the natural world.

16. Urban Life

The automobile, the highway system, and resultant “car culture” have contributed to the death of cities and towns. While not everyone will live in urban environments, cities are vital institutions of culture, community, learning, and the arts. They should never have been abandoned by American Whites of older generations and should be reestablished as jewels of our civilization.

17. The Natural World

We are a special part of the natural order, being in it and above it. We have the potential to become nature’s steward or its destroyer. Putting aside contentious matters like global warming and resource depletion, European countries should invest in national parks, wilderness preserves, and wildlife refuges, as well as productive and sustainable farms and ranches. The natural world—and our experience of it—is an end in itself.

18. The '68ers

The generation born between the years 1945 and 1964 abrogated its duty to safeguard and pass down a civilization to its children. The so-called “'68ers” engage in childish narcissism of the most extreme kind; they bear responsibility for today’s lamentable state of affairs; and they are seemingly unable even to recognize their culpability.

128

A new generation of leadership is desperately needed.

19. Education

Modern education—from preschool to the doctoral level—has become corrupted past the point of recognition. This industry (both public and private) serves leftist ideologues, loan financiers, and a new class of administrators far more than it serves students and parents.

Children should not be indoctrinated in liberal dogma but given a foundation in language, mathematics, the arts, history, and science. Higher education—far from being a “right” or a “pathway to the middle class”—is only appropriate for a cognitive elite dedicated to truth; it is improper, even detrimental, for most. Practical education—trade schools and apprenticeships—should be revived as the norm for most citizens.

20. Personal Duties

A man distinguishes himself by his deeds. And every man, in his own way, must strive to be something more than a man: to be honored by his heirs; to be part of something greater than his self.
